

Professional Biography

Gary M. Reggiani – President – ETI

Employment Experience:	30
Water Treatment Experience:	30
Years with ETI:	13 (15 years with Betz)
Educational Background:	Bachelor of Science, Environmental Engineering, Newark College of Engineering, 1981
Water Treatment Areas of Specialization:	Industrial Boiler & Cooling Systems, Membrane & Fireside Treatments
Industry Segments of Experience:	Power/CoGen, Paper, Refining, Chemical & Petrochemical, Manufacturing and HVAC
Technical Papers Authored/Co-Authored:	“Condensate Treatment Diagnostics” IWC, 1989 & 1997; NACE, 1993 “Combustion Additives” PowerGen, 1997 “White Rust Prevention – Guide Paper” AWT, 2002 “Trasar Alternatives” – AWT, 2004 “Closed Loop Alternatives” – AWT, 2005
Technical Presentations Given:	“Condensate” IWC. Pittsburgh, PA. October, 1989 & 1997 “Condensate” NACE Conference. New Orleans, LA. April, 1993 “Combustion Additives” PowerGen. Dallas, TX. December, 1997 “White Rust” AWT Conference Orlando, FL. September, 2002 “VpCI Additives” – AWT Conf., 2003 “Trasar Alternatives” – AWT Conf., 2004 “Closed Loop Alternatives” – AWT Conf., 2005 Customer Seminars - External/RO/Boiler/Cooling/Biocides Union Carbide ESTEP Training Certified G-7 Training Instructor in New York
Awards:	(6) Customer Service Excellence Awards Lion’s Award – 1992
Professional Affiliations:	Association of Water Technologies (AWT) Cooling Technology Institute (CTI) National Association of Corrosion Engineers (NACE) – Symposium Chair & Vice Chair (2)